

01-01-06

Contributed by
Sunday, 01 January 2006
Last Updated Monday, 14 January 2008

This will be the cutting edge hang for the real world bassist, by bassists. A site not for the weak or the timid, but the players with the passion for content on what matters most from the heart as a bassist, the music, the tone, the wood, the strings, the gear, the groove, the sweat, the stories. The driving force will be your input and your ideas because this site is about you. The commitment from this site's end will be a forum focused primarily on the music, then the gear, along with cool features for self-promotion and networking (details soon to follow). For you, the real world bassist, with many surprises to follow, so like the Druids, we will build this. We're heading for NAMM in Anaheim, so please check back soon. Many thanks to Garry Nutt, Kirk Hayes, Stephen King, Marque Kelsey, Pete Fuller, Butch Ammons, Trane Francks, and all of the rest of you who inspired this site to happen, you know who you are! Thanks for believing. Let's do this! Peace brothers and sisters…PD